Students Trek Back To School, Sept. 10

A series of teachers' meetings this week served as a prelude to the formal opening of schools in Upland on Wednesday, Sept. 10.

Building staff meetings were held Tuesday at 9 a.m. for all teachers in the district.

Monday noon, all new teachers attended a luncheon at the Upland Inn, hosted by the Upland Kiwanis Club.

Tuesday afternoon, elementary teachers gathered for grade - level meetings at individual schools at 2 p.m., while junior high instructors conducted departmental meetings.

A district meeting was held Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. at the Upland Elementary school.

Three meetings were on tap today: at 9 a.m., a meeting of the Upland Educators Association was chaired by Frank Migaiolo, president, and at 10:30 this morning there was an information meeting regarding insurance and other matters. At 2 p.m. Oliver Soderberg, president of the Upland Principals Association conducted a UPA meeting, while district teachers prepared their rooms for school.

Room preparation for teachers will resume tomorrow morning at 9 a.m., and a meeting of substitute teachers also will be held at the same hour in the district board room, chaired by Jim Smith, assistant superintendent.

From all indications, teacher shortages prevalent in some districts are not in evidence in either the Upland District or the Chaffey Union High School District, though in the latter teacher increments fell short of what the administration had hoped for.

Nor does either district anticipate any sharp increases in enrollment, it was indicated.

There will be one less class period in the CUHS high schools, as a part of the economy drive after the tax rate hike was defeated this spring---also some minor coaching positions were eliminated and there was a small reduction in the administrative staff as a part of the cut-back.

Student activities also were underway this week as gridders began contact work after a week of conditioning and student body and class officers gathered to make plans for the coming year.

School bus routes, menus and other pertinent information will be found in today's "Back to School" edition of the Upland news.

DRESS CODE PANEL - Upland Junior High School parents, teachers and students discussed the school's dress code at a meeting held Thursday. Participating in the panel were, Mrs. Arthur Price, parent; Mrs. Georgia Butts, math teacher; and Jacque Brownell and Diane Sheets, eigth grade students.

Group Revises Dress Code

Revisions in the Upland junior high school dress code for students were approved Thursday, Aug. 28, by a joint committee of students, parents, teachers and administrators.

The committee recognized that changes in styles were forcing some revisions in the basic dress code adopted last year at the junior high school.

"Styles are very short and we're going to have to stay in style," said Mrs. Charles Bartolotta, UJHS Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) president.

"Decency never goes out of style," said Robert Nolan, principal. He urged the committee to use this maxim as a guiding principle in revising the dress code.

The committee, in a major revision, approved A-line culottes and divided dresses as acceptable school attire. Mrs. A. C. Lehman, PTA legislative representative, encouraged this revision, but cautioned the committee not to include straight-line culottes since they are "sofitted" as to be nearly bermudas.

Diane Sheets, UJHS student committee member, commenting on how short is short, said, "Too short is when I'm uncomfortable."

Jacque Brownell, student body secretary, defined "too short" as "when my nylon tops show -- about five inches."

The committee established acceptable school attire skirt length at 4 inches from the middle of a girl's knee.

The dress code reads:

"Since students behave best when well dressed, schools generally ask their students to maintain certain standards for their clothing and grooming.

"Girls: Skirts and blouses or dresses are acceptable. No slacks, shorts, capris, bermudas, or split skirt dresses are permitted. Bare shoulders and spaghetti straps are not permitted for school wear. No short skirts. Skirts should not be shorter than four inches from the middle of the knee. A-line culottes and divided skirts are acceptable. No thong-type shoes, sandals, moccasins or boots are considered acceptable school attire.

"While at school, girls' hair should be neat without curlers, nets, or clips; no scarves or wigs shall be worn. Unnatural colors and excessive styles must not appear at school.

"No eye makeup shall be worn while at school or at school activities.

"Boys: Trousers are to be worn at the proper place above the hips and shirts must be tucked into the trousers and buttoned, except for the top button. Jackets and shirts of unusual style are not for school wear.

"Boys must keep their hair cut to a reasonable and neat length. Reasonable and neat means regulation boy's hair cut. Extreme bell-bottom or flared trousers are not permitted. Sandals and boots are not acceptable school attire."

Those attending the committee meeting in addition to Nolan, Mrs. Bartolotta, Mrs. Lehman, Diane Sheets, and Jacque Brownell, were Mrs. E. W. Dukes, PTA historian; Mrs. Arthur Price, PTA membership chairman; Mrs. Henry M. Haap, UJHS teacher; Mrs. William E. Herke, PTA vice president; Mrs. William Butts, UJHS teacher; Don Rose, assistant principal; John Le Fevers, student body president.

An Upland high teacher, his wife and 16-year-old son were killed Saturday in a three-car mishap on U. S. 101, 12 miles south of San Jose. The second son died later of multiple head injuries.

Commentary

Do People Count?

In serving as City Editor for a year, I look back at the many items that have come before the city council and have commented where I felt it was necessary.

Of course I haven't always agreed with the city and probably won't in the future, one of our functions it is to comment on the way the citizens taxes are handled.

A city has a responsibility to keep the public informed, and we try to see that this is done,

On the serious side of looking at the city, my deepest concern is for parks and recreation. There is not enough of either and an apathy about both. Something must be done. The youngsters in this town need a park to play in and some kind of organized recreation, year around. The Boys Club is a disgrace and needs help badly.

The communication lines between the older and younger generation and the Mexican and Anglo population need opening and need to stay open.

Yes, the city is beautiful; yes, the streets are paved neatly; yes, the garbage is picked up; but these are things. What about people? They should be important, too. But are they?

-- JBK

Become Involved

Last January, we asked the taxpayer in Upland to become involved in civic affairs. Judging by the number of citizens absent from city council, planning commission, parks and recreation and school board meetings, the public has turned a deaf ear.

All we asked at that time was that the taxpayers attend ONE meeting of each civic body. We again make the appeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer it is your money involved in the running of these cities and schools. It is your elected officials making and administering laws deciding the role government will play in your life.

The agendas for these meetings are available at city hall or school districts offices and these meetings are open to the public.

We again ask you to become involved in civic affairs. The next few months will see important decisions made. A Park Bond issue, an elected mayor issue and three councilmen will be elected by the voting public. Schools will be grouping for direction in school financing. These are all vital issues that concern you.

Please become an informed taxpayer and get involved in your cities' affairs.

Last Week's Answer

"Yep, That's Where It All Started!"

'Scene And Herd' In The West End

by Bill Mason

10 YEARS AGO

Where were you 10 years ago this week--say about Sept. 10, 1959?

We can tell you where we were.

Yours truly was walking down the boardwalk in Atlantic City.

Atlantic City isn't a particularly beautiful city--it's something like Ocean Park and the Pike in Long Beach were in their declining years.

But we were there, and had no plans to be there a week earlier.

IN ATLANTIC CITY

For, the week after Labor Day is when the week-long Miss America Pageant is held in Atlantic City.

Marlinda Mason, was representing the state of Colorado in that event. Marlinda happens to be my older daughter.

Now, Marlinda isn't an extrovert. She never entered any sort of contest at East High in Denver.

But when she arrived at Colorado University, things just began to happen.

She hadn't been there three weeks before she was named the freshman queen. That same year she was named the Freshman Queen of the Colorado Relays.

Next year she appeared in photos in Life Magazine escorted by an Air Force Cadet. Her picture appeared on the Parade Sunday Supplement along with four other CU girls with the heading reading: "Are Colorado Girls, the World's Most Beautiful?" One of the other girls in the photo was the daughter of Ingrid Bergman.

In her junior year, her sorority sisters pushed her into the Miss Colorado University contest. She was reluctant to enter but did so after considerable pleading. She won it.

Two months later, she represented the University in the Miss Colorado Pageant. She won that one, too.

MEANWHILE AT THE SALT MINE

During all of this excitement which didn't phase her a bit, we were carrying on our daily chores with the Fourth Estate, and had even arranged to take our vacation early.

Naturally, we were all shook up with her success, but brushed aside the thought of seeing the Miss America Pageant in person. As a matter of fact, we were set on reserving a front row television seat for the event.

The weekend prior to the (Pageant)--it is already the week after Labor Day to help fill the empty hotels--the chief of police in this town where we were slaving away walked in with an envelope.

Quickly, we began to review all bad deeds of the past 30 days ranging from over-parking to speeding and more serious offenses.

This hulking chief who towered at 6-7 and weighed 250, slapped down the envelope and muttered, "I want you on that plane, Sunday night and out of town."

With that he walked out of the office.

Naturally, we were more than a bit curious about the contents of the envelope. Inside was a round-trip ticket to Atlantic City with confirmed hotel reservations (all paid up for the week).

Seems that the police department had made a little collection around town for the event and had arranged with the boss for us to take off.

Ever since then, we like police officers.

THE PAGEANT

On the stage of the Atlantic Municipal Auditorium, we saw Marlinda participate in the swimming suit competition, the formal competition and the talent competition.

On the final night, we were so nervous we had to go outside in the lobby to watch it on television. She was calm and gave a dramatic reading before about 8,000 people, without a flinch of nervousness.

No, she wasn't named Miss America. She had a tough row to hoe. The two Miss Colorados before her had won that honor and for one state to win it three times in succession would have been unthinkable.

THRILL OF A LIFE-TIME

We couldn't have been prouder (even if she had won the honor, and her younger sister, just as attractive, couldn't have been prouder, either).

Every time we think of her and Atlantic City, we get a lump in our throat.

After all, even Dick Nixon nor LBJ ever had a daughter in the Miss America Pageant, and they had two daughters, too.

What's Doing In Upland?

by Jenny Kirkpatrick

JUST A YEAR AGO

It doesn't seem possible that just a year ago today, I became the city editor of the Upland News. It certainly has been a year to remember and one of the nicest. People, from the city council down to the small child on the street have made me feel welcome.

My year spent here has had many memorable events which I'll remember for always. For instance:

Jenny Kirkpatrick

The 101 degree weather that I faced in Sept. when I came last year. This year's August heat, makes me almost say, "This is where I came in." The time I had to go to a home in north Upland and ask for the picture of a very nice couple's son. He was killed in Vietnam. I could not get over how quiet it was up there and how violent war is. The Caborca trip, it was such fun and I enjoyed Mexico so much, it was my first glimpse of Mexico other than the boarder towns. The Caborcans were most gracious. The snow at Christmas, being a native Coloradan, I dispensed with work for the afternoon and built a snowman.

Believe it or not I had almost forgotten how.

It seems like life is a series of joys and tragedies and so after a fun Christmas season, the rain started. Now rain is pleasant when it is a quiet pitter patter, but not when it is a steady downpour and not for nine days running. The result of this mother nature event was floods, serious floods. It seemed almost ironic to be standing knee deep in running flood waters taking pictures of the Thomas Winery and under blue skies the Monday after the floods. The destruction was terrible to see, it is amazing that the area is almost normal again.

The dedication of the library and fire station headquarters was exciting, and again the rains, but inside the stage was bedecked with flowers and music, played a world apart from the dripping wetness. The sister city delegation was delightful and Mayor Carlos Valencia's speech lent an international flavor. I can't by-pass the interview with Lt. Governor Reineke, it was an exclusive and he is most charming, and for glamour the Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. FBI caper in town was the excitement of the summer. It also was one of the hottest days of the year. Add to these memories the Disneyland Band, the chamber of commerce air tour, Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco, and many many more, and they add up to a year to remember.

If Pastor Koske and/or the congregation can be of service in any way to anyone, please feel free to contact them.

Park Bond Group Tours Huntington

A group of people interested in parks and recreation journeyed to Huntington Beach to discuss that city's recent successful park bond issue.

Meeting with the Huntington Beach City Manager, head of the Parks and Recreation commission, Director of Parks and Recreation and head of the Citizens Park Bond Issue, the group discussed successful aspects of passing a park bond issue.

The main difference cited by the Huntington Beach group was that the success was due to personal contact of people on the need. In a previous bond election, which was lost by that city, the contact was made only to groups.

It was the doorbell pushing that made the last election a success, the Huntington Beach civic leaders told the group.

Attending from Upland were Harold Cook, member of Parks and Recreation Committee, Dick Riley, principal, Cabrillo school, Mrs. Eleanor Warren and Jay Thrasher, interested citizens, and Mike Adamson, administrative assistant, City of Upland.

Upland Woman College Graduate

Patricia Corinne Yetter of Upland, received a Bachelor of Science in Education degree from the University of Nebraska Teachers College at the close of the second summer session, Aug. 22.

About 470 students received degrees at the end of this second 5 1/2-week summer term.

There was no formal commencement at the close of the session. Students who had completed degree requirements received their diplomas from the registrar's office.

Chaffey Slates Orientation Day

ALTA LOMA -- New students at Chaffey college will be welcomed with a full dress orientation program and a topping of soul music, Friday, Sept. 5.

Participants in the 9-11:30 a.m. event will be divided according to study subject interest in groups of 12. Each group will be briefed by a faculty adviser whose teaching field corresponds to its respective major.

The group sessions will cover special areas of interest relating to the college as well as general Chaffey campus background. New students will be able to consult with returning sophomores.

The groups will be conducted also on short tours of the campus to familiarize newcomers with the college's facilities.

Each newcomer will receive literature relating to financial aids and employment and the new campus center facilities along with Panther Patter, the Associated Student Body handbook.

The program will end at campus center with refreshments and entertainment. Featured will be soul music by The Aggregation, a band from Claremont under the direction of Larry Pitcher.

There will be time available for participants to become informed on student government and campus clubs.

June Teitsworth, dean of student activities, is coordinating the orientation program. The program will be implemented by some 70 faculty members.

Abitibi Corporation Buys Multimillion Dollar Plant

Abitibi Corporation of Birmingham, Michigan, has purchased a multimillion dollar hardboard manufacturing plant at Blountstown, Florida from the Economic Development Administration, it has been announced by Corporation President Robert C. Gimlin.

Purchase price was undisclosed for the facility formerly owned by Coastal Products Corporation.

The deal represents a considerable economic boost to a depressed-Bloutstown area, 50 miles west of Tallahassee, and means the creation of an expanded job market for residents of nearby Georgia and Alabama as well. The facility will provide 100 jobs for salaried and hourly-wage employees, with an additional 100 men employed by local contractors to supply pulp wood. The plant will require an estimated 30,000 cords of hardwood annually.

Gimlin noted that the Florida and Georgia acquisitions underscore Abitibi's growing interest in important Southeastern markets. The company now has invested approximately one-third of its capital outlay--some $100 million--in the United States.

Abitibi Corporation is a national manufacturer of hardboard and plywood products with facilities in Alpena, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois; Cucamonga, California; Middlebury, Indiana and Tiffin, Ohio.

Abitibi Corporation is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Abitibi Paper Company, Ltd. of Toronto, Canada, which also has expanded recently in the Southeastern United States with last year's acquisitions of the Cox Newsprint plant at Augusta, Ga., and the Clarendon Paper Sales Company in Atlanta.

Last year the company, with assets of $360-million, reported net sales of $255,587,974, up 22% over 1967. Net earnings were $11,028,197, or $.60 a share. Abitibi stock is traded on the Toronto Exchange.

For 1969, Abitibi anticipates increased production and sales in its primary American markets of newsprint and building materials.

2 cups half/half; 4 eggs; seasoned salt and pepper.
Scald cream in large sauce pan or skillet. Break eggs into shallow bowl and slip into warm cream. Poach eggs over low heat. Place eggs on toast triangles, and spoon cream over all. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Makes four servings.

EGG COOKING TIP
High temperature and long cooking cause protein to shrink, with an accompanying loss of moisture, making the protein rubbery or tough. Moderate to low temperatures with proper timing are the general rule to assure uniformly tender, attractive egg dishes.

New Ideas Will Flavor Menu At Restaurant

By Jenny Kirkpatrick

An "Upland drink" with specially blended ingredients may become a reality when the newly remodeled Arbor restaurant is completed, said Walter Rippe, president and manager.

At least this is one of his ideas among many for the new restaurant which is being remodeled from the old "Stuft Shirt" on Euclid avenue and Foothill boulevard.

He is well versed in restaurant management having handled all operations for the Stuft Shirt Restaurant in Newport Beach. The new president-manager's restaurant career goes back to Europe. Although he was born in the United States he went to Europe when he was seven and his family took over a restaurant and theatre in Germany. The war years were spent there.

He really hadn't made up his mind about a career, so it was natural for his father to teach him to be a chef. Rippe admits he wasn't keen about learning or being a chef at that time.

He returned to the United States and entered the army. When he was at Ft. Lewis, Washington, he found the food so bad that he volunteered to help in the kitchen. In two weeks he went from Corporal to Sergeant and was made head of the mess hall. He was in charge for a year and at the age of 21 took over management of the Officers Club. After his stint in the army, he went to New York where his parents lived and used his GI Bill to go to New York City College, where he took up restaurant management and graduated Cum Laude. He decided his career was in the kitchen.

Rippe was Soup Chef at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, for six months and then went to the Balboa Bay Club. In 1950 he went to the Stuft Shirt Restaurant at Newport Beach as chef and worked his way up to general manager of all operations. When they established a restaurant in Upland, he came along and when it was sold this spring, he asked to bid on it and got it.

He, along with his wife, live in Altadena and when she isn't busy with their four daughters, she helps him. The costumes for the waitresses were designed by her and she helped design the new interior.

Rippe says the new restaurant will be completely remodeled in two months, but will be open during the remodeling. It will have a brick exterior and tile floors. The interior will reflect a warm atmosphere and there will be continuous entertainment nightly.

Besides the "Upland Drink" he's planning the favorite dishes of the area people, which is beef steak or roast, potatoes and a big salad.

For the gourmet tastes there will be continental items and on the spot catering for small and large affairs.

His aim is the best popular food at popular prices. in a congenial atmosphere.

Her chapel-length silk illusion veil was held in place by a custom-designed juliet cap of similar appliques and embroidery. She carried two long-stemmed white roses.

Maid of honor was Susan Vavrinek of Upland. Her full-length chiffon gown was Nile green trimmed in matching satin. The sleeves were long, and the flat pointed collar, wide belt, and tiny buttons were done in satin.

The flower girl wore a floor-length dress of white organdy, net, and lace, and carried a small bouquet. She wore white rosebuds in her hair. The ring bearer wore a custom-made white silk Renoir suit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Yetter, 255 Harford Place, Upland. She was graduated from the University of Nebraska in June, having majored in primary education. She is a member of the National Charity League.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Thomas Godfrey of Superior, Wisc., and the late Harold Benjamin. He was graduated from the same university in 1968 and is working in the accounting field.

Acting as best man was his brother Tom. Groomsmen included Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers Paul Deck of Lincoln, Nebr., Richard Hansen of Stanton, Nebr., and Scott Steinbaugh of Omaha, and Charles Asmus--also of Omaha.

Out-of-town guest included the bride's aunts Mrs. Yetter Trombold of Haddonfield, N.J., and Mrs. William Ginn and Steven of Omaha, the bride's cousin Gene Frantz of Burlingame, and the bridegroom's aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Olson and son Steven of Minneapolis, Minn.

Book Service To Patients Brings Good Reading To Many

December, 1967, marked the inception of another volunteer service of the Women's Auxiliary to San Antonio Community Hospital.

The proceeds from the 1967 Silver Tea were allocated to aid in the purchase of a stock of paperback books, and a mobile Book Cart was underway. The Book Cart visits patients regularly, enabling them to purchase reading material. If a patient desires a book and is unable to pay, he may have his choice as a gift from the Auxiliary. Books are also available in the Gift Shop.

Book Cart volunteers enlist the aid of the nursing staff throughout the hospital to ascertain which patients are well enough to enjoy reading. Many patients find the period of convalescence is a wonderful time to finally read that long, involved, multi-charactered book we all intend to read "sometime".

All kinds of books for all kinds of tastes are available, with the popular crossword puzzle book leading the way.

The motto of the Book Cart is "Read Lotsa Books", and volunteers find their own reading activity stepped up in an effort to be able to assist patients in their selections. Checking of the best seller lists and the reading of capsule reviews are a necessity for the efficient volunteer.

All proceeds from book sales go to the philanthropies of the Women's Auxiliary.

During the last year 110 books were donated to patients, a large majority going to pediatric patients and to the Barr Pavilion.

An additional function of the Book Cart is the collection of used hardbound and paperback books which are then given to the California Youth Training School on South Euclid Avenue in Ontario.

The Book Cart Committee is composed of the following persons:

Mrs. Harold Royaltey, Chairman
Mrs. Herschel Glenn, Treasurer
Mrs. Lawrence Beck
Mrs. H. C. Erwin
Mrs. R. W. Jafek
Mrs. Frank Kennon
Mrs. Harold Lovgren
Mrs. Paul Rusche.

ARTIST AUCTION -- Mrs. Guy O'Kelly, chairman of the Cucamonga-Alta Loma Women's Club Membership Tea talks with artist Don Foster, who will be their featured guest September 10, from 2-4 at Sweeten Hall in Cucamonga. His demonstration painting will be auctioned off at the end of the meeting.

A letter of resignation from the president, Mrs. Andrew Wood was read to the members. Mrs. Karl Cox will fill the office of president until election of officers is in November.

Our Man In Washington

Fishing Industry In Trouble

WASHINGTON-When it comes to fighting for the sensible use and development of America's natural resources, Congresswoman Julia Butler Hansen of Washington is without peer among elected officials.

As chairman of the Interior Subcommittee on Appropriations, she has been much concerned with the plight of the U.S. fishing industry--not only in her home state but throughout the nation.

Some of the best fishing anywhere is in U.S. coastal waters, yet foreign fishermen take more of this catch than do our own fishermen. The U.S. is the world's largest and most lucrative market for fish products (consumption up from seven billion pounds in 1950 to 14 billion pounds in 1967), but this demand is being met by imports.

Fish imports to the U.S. rose from 25 per cent in 1950 to 71 per cent in 1967, and are expected to be 92 per cent in seven years. Canada is the largest importer.

THE DIRECTOR of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, H. E. Crowther, told Mrs. Hansen's committee that the U.S. fishing industry faces a steadily deepening crisis "which may be beyond resolution unless positive action is taken soon to solve it."

While there are numerous reasons given as to why the industry finds itself in such a sad state, Mrs. Hansen is inclined to place most of the blame on the federal government -- specifically the Kennedy round which reduced tariffs to encourage foreign trade. It looked, she said, almost as if "we wanted to write off fish as a product of the U.S.'

Mrs. Hansen expressed grave concern with the dominant position of Russia where the fishing industry is state owned, making it next to impossible for independent fishermen to compete. She declared:

"Eventually we will just say it doesn't matter what the Soviet Union does, they can fish right in our own rivers. Eventually the Soviet Union will just quietly and calmly tell the U.S. what food it can and cannot eat... We see our own government edging ever closer to a phaseout of support of our fishing industry."

Another Committee member asked Crowther, "Are we getting pretty close to the position where we are out of the fishing business in this country?" To which the director replied, "Yes we are."

Specifically there are a number of reasons why the U.S. is losing out in the fish industry. Aside from the Russian problem, most of the major fishing countries like Japan, Canada, Great Britain, Norway, etc., give the industry government help.

Canadian fishermen have for years been receiving a subsidy just like the farmers do in this country--at both the national and provencial level. A fisherman with as little as $5,000 to invest can have a $100,000 fishing vessel.

Bill Kennedy

The fishing countries also have moved forward in research, building better boats and equipment and thereby making their operation more efficient, while the U.S. has let its fishing boats and equipment become obsolete, and little has been done in research.

THEN TOO the U.S. has thousands of regulations hamstringing fishermen--at the local, state and federal level. One is a 1793 law requiring that all fishing boats be built in the U.S., and it costs about double the amount as it does to have the boats built elsewhere.

Another factor is that U.S. fishermen must pay higher wages than do other countries, which means they must sell their fish on the market at a higher price and worsen their competitive position.

In reply to Mrs. Hansen's pointed questions regarding the administrations fiscal attitude toward the industry, Director Crowther painted this gloomy picture:

"We do not believe that our present level of effort can stop the trend that is now developing in the fisheries, and certainly we cannot reverse it. It would be unrealistic to say so."

BUT DESPITE this prophecy of doom, Congresswoman Hansen is not all that pessimistic. She wants to see some tarrifs reinstated to protect the American fisherman. She wants the government to spend much more money in research and modern equipment for fishing. She wants to see federal aid given to fishing boat construction, and some type of subsidies.

In short, Mrs. Hansen wants the U.S. fishing industry back on its feet, able to satisfy the home market and compete in world markets. And she doesn't think it's too late.

Gas Suppliers Granted $62 Million Increase

LOS ANGELES - The California Public Utilities Commission has granted Southern California's two largest gas suppliers a $6,525,000 increase to offset the higher cost of gas they purchase from El Paso Natural Gas and Transwestern Pipeline companies.

The PUC also provided means by which the Southern California and Southern Counties Gas companies can "track" further increases anticipated from the pipeline companies through December 31. These provisional increases could total as much as $7-738,000.

Short-notice increases for the pipelines companies were authorized earlier this year by the Federal Power Commission to allow the pipelines to "track" certain increases charged by gas producers in the Permian, San Juan, and other supply areas.

The pipelines' increases are subject to refund if they exceed the just and reasonable rates finally determined by the FPC.

In turn, the PUC will require refunds and rate reductions to the gas supply companies' customers should the final increases allowed by the FPC be lower than at present.

In its order yesterday, the PUC noted that "California interests continue to be capably represented in proceedings before the Federal Power Commission by the Commission's staff, representing the People of the State of California and this Commission, and that the (local gas companies) have actively cooperated therein, in accordance with the directions of this Commission. California's goals have been, and continue to be, to obtain adequate supplies of out-of-state gas at the lowest reasonable rates."

The PUC order also requires the Southern Counties and Southern California companies to confirm that the provisional increases are indeed true offsets which will not raise the companies' rates of return beyond those last found reasonable by the Commission.

The confirmation will be in the form of a results-of-operation report based on estimated 1970 operations. The report is due on or before October 1, after which the Commission may hold further public hearings on the matter.

The Commission rejected Southern Counties and Southern California's request to exclude steam electric customers such as Edison and the Department of Water and Power from the offset increases. Steam electric customers account for over a third of the companies' gas sales.

During five days of public hearing last June, the companies contended any increase for the steam electrics would pierce the ceiling price established by contract.

The Commission said, however, that "all classes of service should bear a portion of the revenue increase" and that if the ceiling price cannot accommodate an increase, the ceiling is "unjust and unreasonable."

The initial $6,525,000 increase may become effective in five days.

Any additional provisional increases will become effective on 15 days' notice.

Parents Not The Source Of Sex Education, Survey

Where do teenagers learn about the birds and the bees or, to say it another way, the 'secrets' of sex?

Not, apparently, from their parents, according to a recent Purdue University poll of 1,000 teenagers.

Education USA, published by the National School Public Relations Association, in its recent 48-page special report on "Sex Education in Schools," gave the following statistics from the Purdue poll:

. The majority of teenagers (53 per cent of the boys and 42 per cent of the girls) "got the word" from their friends.

. Fifteen per cent reported they "pieced things together" from TV, movies, books, pornographic and a variety of such sources.

. Six per cent received sex instruction in school.

. Seven per cent were advised by adults other than parents.

. Mom and/or Dad got credit for informing only 15 per cent of the boys and 35 per cent of the girls about sex.

"The reasons," says Education USA, 'are not hard to understand. Many present-day parents were brought up in an era when sex was still talked about in hushed tones or snickers. If they asked their parents about babies, they did not receive straightforward answers. And subjects like intercourse, masturbation, 'wet dreams,' homosexuality, were simply unmentionable--especially 'in front of the children.' "

LUCKY LAMB -- This little lamb doesn't know how lucky he is to be cuddled by Shirley Combe, 20-year old Cal Poly coed finalist in Los Angeles County Fair queen contest. Shirley will vie with seven other college lovelies for title. Winner will be announced Sept. 12, opening night of huge 17-day exposition.

Floor Finish

Finishing a floor? After you have removed the old finish, work quickly and thoroughly to complete the job. Moisture vapor may cause grain lifting and dirt or stains are difficult to remove from the bare wood. It's also advisable to work in your stocking feet since this will reduce the chance of scuff marks or dirt damaging the floor.

New Phonics Workbook To Aid Beginning Reader

California's elementary pupils will be using new phonics textbooks this fall, thus ending a long and confusing controversy over so-called "phonics vs. look-say"

"Look-say can now be dropped from our vocabulary. It is a dead issue," says Dr. D. Russell Parks, vice chairman of the State Curriculum Commission and superintendent of Fullerton Elementary Schools.

The $11.1 million basic and supplementary textbook program, Dr. Parks explains, completes introduction of all phonics skills by the end of the second grade and provides for teaching of the alphabet in the first grade. It was approved last May 10 by the State Board of Education by a unanimous vote.

"It is an eclectic reading program designed to be used statewide in all schools, rural and urban; advantaged and disadvantaged; English-speaking and bi-lingual," Dr. Parks said.

Mrs. Elaine H. Stowe, who headed the commission's reading subcommittee until her recent resignation, to take advantage of a year's leave of absence from her post as language arts specialist for Sacramento City Schools, points out that over 40,149 persons took a year to screen all new reading textbooks available and finally participate in recommending those adopted.

Red Cross Aids Gulf Disaster

Inquiries from west end residents concerned about relatives within the Gulf coast disaster area will be accepted by the Chaffey Service Center, American Red Cross, 209 East "I" st., Ontario, according to Wilfred J. Wells, Advisory Board Chairman.

Due to congestion of traditional channels, all requests are being processed by airmail at the present time, Wells indicated. The usual means of communication (TWX) will be resumed when the present load is reduced.

Red Cross forces in the disaster area have notified the Chaffey Service Center that the following counties have been affected: George, Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, Pearl River and Stone in Mississippi; Plaquemine Parish in Louisiana.

Chaffey Service Center serves the west end communities and the phone number is 986-6651. As soon as replies have been received, the concerned families will be contacted by phone.

Engineers' Wives Set. Sept. 7 Picnic

The Wives of Professional Engineers are holding a family picnic Sunday, September 7, at Palomares Park in Pomona.

The festivities will begin at noon with lunch, and will include games and races for children and adults.

This is the first social event of the new season for the group, an auxiliary to the East San Gabriel Chapter, California Society of Professional Engineers.

Members wishing to attend the picnic may call Mrs. Carol Lampman (714) 623-8059 or Mrs. Rick Schonewille (213) 966-7889 for reservations.

FAMILY POT LUCK

Add a dash of Worcestershire sauce or dry mustard to the cheese sauce when you prepare macaroni and cheese to give extra flavor to the food.

Shrimp dipped in melted butter and then rolled in crushed potato chips comes out just dandy and much shrimpier and can be dipped in the famous chip and sour cream sauce at a picnic.

Ham slices are extra delicious when grilled with a mustard butter sauce. Combine ½ cup butter, 2 tablespoons each prepared mustard and instant miced onion. Brush ham slices lightly with mustard butter during grilling and again just before serving.

Mate bread to your meat filling for summer sandwich eating. White bread goes with anything. Whole or cracked wheat and pumpernickel are particularly good with cold meats. French or Italian breads are excellent with salami, ham or bacon, lettuce and tomato.

GO-GO HOT DOGS

Fat Hot Dogs
Potato Chips
Cracked Wheat Bread
Butter
Stuffed Olives

Split fat hot dogs the long way and fill them with crushed potato chips and thin slices of stuffed olives. Cut the crust from very fresh cracked wheat bread. Roll thick with a rolling pin. Butter lightly and spread thickly with crushed potato chips. Put a stuffed dog on each piece of bread and roll up. Secure with tooth picks and brown in hot oven (425 degrees) till nice and crisp.

The proposals will be publicly opened and read in the Council Chambers, 5111 Benito Street, Montclair, California, at 10:00 a.m. on the date above mentioned.

DESCRIPTION OF WORK: The entire work is contained in a single bid schedule. The work consists of street improvements including A. C. pavement, curbs and gutters, sidewalk and a storm drain system including RCB outlet, CMP arch and 8" AC pipe.

COMPLETION OF WORK: All work shall be completed within sixty (60) calendar days after the date of the execution of the contract by the City.

PROPOSAL GUARANTEE: Each proposal must be accompanied by cash or by a cashier's or certified check or by a bid bond in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the bid price, made payable to the order of the City Clerk of the City of Montclair, as a guaranty that the bidder, if the award is made to him in accordance with the terms of his proposal, will promptly execute a contract in the required form, secure payment of workmen's compensation insurance, and furnish a satisfactory faithful performance bond and a labor and material bond. In addition to the above and if requested by the City, the bidder shall furnish a financial statement of recent date. UNITED CRUSADE

PARTNERSHIP OF UNITED WAY AND AMERICAN RED CROSS — 1969-70

Five Co-chairmen To Head Crusade

Five Los Angeles business, civic and philanthropic leaders have pledged their efforts in co-ordinating the largest United Crusade in local history, the 1969 campaign for $30,350,000 for the support of 95 percent of all voluntary health and welfare services in the community.

Co-chairmen of the United Crusade are Louis B. Lundborg, chairman of the board, Bank of America, who is team captain; Dr. Franklin D. Murphy, chairman of the board and chief executive officer, The Times Mirror Co.; Ernest J. Loehbecke, chairman of the board, Title Insurance and Trust Co.; Frederick A. Schnell, senior vice president in charge of Western Operations, The Prudential Insurance Company of America, and Victor M. Carter, who served as United Crusade chairman in 1967.

Lundborg, who served as president of United Way, Inc. in 1966-67, has emphasized the need for the total support of the community this year in face of the loss of Gordon L. Hough, United Crusade chairman who was reassigned to the New York office of AT&T.

Lundborg has been active in United Way since its founding in 1963, serving as its president from 1966 to 1968. A member of the United Crusade Campaign Cabinet for the past five years, he will be chairman of the United Crusade in 1971.

Carter, who is president of United Way, Inc., also is a director of the Greater Los Angeles Urban League, the Valley Presbyterian Hospital, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles World Affairs Council.

Chairman of the Fund Raising Council of American Red Cross chapters in Los Angeles County, Schnell was active in the formation of United Crusade in 1964. He is a member of the Steering Committee of the Los Angeles Urban Coalition.

Founding and honorary president of United Way, Inc., Loehbecke first became active in this community effort in 1945, serving as a committee member of the Los Angeles Community Chest. He is currently a member of the United Way General Board and the United Crusade Campaign Cabinet.

Dr. Murphy, who was Chancellor of UCLA from 1960 to 1968, is a member of the board of trustees of the Institute of International Education.

TIME OF DISASTER — When disaster struck in the form of floods and mud slides that wiped out homes throughout Los Angeles this year, thousands of families turned to the American Red Cross for help.

Storms Bring Requests for Red Cross Aid

The winter storms of 1969 that more than doubled the normal rainfall in Los Angeles County and resulted in floods and mudslides also deluged Red Cross chapters with requests for assistance from families whose homes were damaged or destroyed.

While the rains fell, Red Cross maintained "congregate shelters" where persons whose homes were either damaged or threatened could come to spend a few hours or to obtain other sleeping and eating and living accommodations.

Later more than 250 families sought Red Cross financial aid for home repairs and replacement of necessary clothing and furnishings amounting to about $118,000.

This was in addition to the families whose problems were not storm related. There were 183 such families, mostly victims of fire, whose needs totaled more than $35,000.

Altogether Red Cross aided 436 families and spent $154,932 in fiscal 1968-1969.

Increasing demands for assistance for disaster victims has been noted on a nation-wide scale by the American National Red Cross in recent years. Last year the organization logged 19,092 disasters and assisted 58,794 families at a cost of $15,800,000.

UC NETWORK OF SERVICES HELPS ONE OUT OF EVERY THREE PEOPLE

One Pint of Blood Used For Seven

With apologies to Latin scholars, the Los Angeles County Red Cross Blood Program has developed its own version of the national motto: E Pluribus Unum (from many one) which is E Unum Pluribus (from one many). It is used to describe blood component therapy.

Doctors now prescribe different parts of fresh blood for different patients (red cells or platelets or specially-treated plasma). Many of these blood components are highly perishable and have a shelf life of only a few hours.

In theory, at least, a single pint of blood can treat as many as seven persons with different blood problems, according to Dr. Byron Myhre, scientific director of the blood program.

While the number of requests for blood components has gone up (averaging about 3,000 a month), the need for whole blood is still the main concern of the blood program, according to Robert L. Berg, administrative director of the blood program.

The perishability of blood continues to be a major problem. Although a satisfactory freezing process is used in Los Angeles, it is too expensive to be practical for any but the very rarest bloods.

Blood not used in component therapy or as whole blood can be processed into derivatives that have a shelf life of more than 21 days, the limit of whole blood. Among these derivatives are serum albumin, gamma globulin, vaccinia immune globulin and fibrinogen.

Last year the regional blood program collected 184,885 pints of whole blood. Of this about 11,000 pints were used in 715 open heart surgeries. Another 27,700 pints went into blood derivatives.

UNITED WAY SERVICES REFLECT TODAY'S NEEDS IN COMMUNITY

United Way services have come into being over the years because people saw the need and joined together to meet that need.

But, as progress changes the community, the needs change. And so do the services.

Today's needs are reflected in today's services, services in the field of child care, emergency aid, health, planning and coordination, professional guidance and counseling, services to youth and young adults and neighborhood services.

Of United Way's 244-member agencies, 25 of them provide child care services to the community. These agencies span the spectrum from children's homes to day nurseries caring for youngsters when mothers work, homes for unwed mothers and adoption services bringing homeless children and childless families together.

The physical and mental well being of its people are vital to any community, and in Los Angeles there are many United Way agencies concerned with the physical and mental health of seven million people living here. These are the agencies providing services ranging from help for the crippled child and the youngster who lives in a world of silence to the adult who needs skilled nursing care at home.

In the field of services to youth and young adults United Way agencies provide extensive programs for hundreds of thousands of youngsters throughout Los Angeles in the form of scouting activities, boys' and girls' clubs, Y-groups and centers for young men and women in the armed forces.

There were 10,000 teenagers in Los Angeles who went on trips last year. Their vehicles were drugs.

This year when disaster struck in the form of floods and mud slides that wiped out homes throughout Los Angeles, thousands of families needed help.

Who helps those troubled teenagers, the homeless families? United Crusade and the people of Los Angeles who contributed more than $25,000,000 in 1968 to the largest community endeavor conducted annually for the support of a network of services provided by 244 agencies of United Way, Inc. and 12 chapters of American Red Cross.

The seven million people living in greater Los Angeles ARE the United Crusade. They make up the federation of givers united to assure continuation of that network of services. And, they are the recipients, for everyone uses the health, welfare and youth services of United Crusade.

One out of every three people living in the United Crusade area will use one of the network of services this year, youngsters in boys' clubs, homeless children, childless families, the aged, the handicapped, youngsters on the fringe of delinquency . . . the 10,000 teenagers involved with drugs . . . the families devastated by disaster.

In the United Crusade area, a territory of 5,500 square miles with 70 incorporated cities and 94 communities in Los Angeles County, southeastern Kern County and western San Bernardino County, the population grows every day.

So do the needs of the people. United Way agencies and American Red Cross chapters provide countless services to fulfill those needs.

In 1968, 646 children found new, permanent homes through adoption services provided by four United Way agencies, and 12,071 disturbed children received intensive specialized counseling, which often included full-time care, through 28 United Way agencies, such as psychiatric clinics, residential treatment homes and special counseling services.

That same year American Red Cross chapters provided disaster services to 5,000 people, collected 184,885 pints of blood, trained 117,118 people through safety programs and 13,279 through nursing programs, helped 21,265 military families through 28,267 services and provided 19,931 trained volunteers for service in medical facilities, children's homes, shelter-care homes, blood-mobiles and blood and service centers.

Back of those services and those who use them are more people, the hundreds of thousands of volunteers who make it all possible. They are the heart of United Crusade, for they are the uniting force in the community.

United Crusade volunteers are on the home ground where the problems exist, where the needs must be fulfilled. These are dedicated people who devote long hours—20,000 hours last year — to researching the needs and reviewing existing programs, then determining the costs and priorities to answer the needs.

It is through their awareness of the needs, their leadership in planning, creating and implementing new programs that United Crusade has become the single, most important voluntary movement in the community.

To continue the network of services so vital to the community, the 1969 United Crusade must raise at least $30,000,000, voluntary dollars that will reinforce funds available to United Way agencies and American Red Cross chapters through other sources such as fees, endowments and foundation and governmental grants.

The need for services to the community exists. And, the resources to support needed services are here. To unite the two, United Crusade is asking for the support of the residents of the community through Fair Share giving.

ITEM: How many knives do you need in your kitchen? A good paring knife with a straight cutting edge and a sharp point, a utility knife, and a larger knife, such as a butcher knife, are basic. Many homemakers like the French or chef's knife for dicing, mincing and shredding foods.

BARBECUED INDONESIAN FAMILY STEAK
4-6 servings

1 Family Steak, 3-3½ lbs. boneless top round, 2" thick
1 package Adolph's 15-minute Meat Marinade
⅔ cup cold water

For Gado Gado Sauce:
½ cup peanut butter
¾ cup hot water
¼ teaspoon crushed red chili pepper
2 tablespoons molasses
2 cloves garlic, minced
½ teaspoon lemon juice
3 tablespoons meat marinade (from package, above)

Slash fat edges of steak to prevent curling. Pour package contents of instant meat marinade into a shallow pan, reserving 3 tablespoons for Gado Gado Sauce. Add ⅔ cup cold water and blend thoroughly. Place meat in marinade. Pierce all surfaces of the meat deeply and thoroughly with a kitchen fork to carry flavor deep and lock in natural juices. Marinate only 15 minutes, turning several times. Remove meat from marinade and let drain. Reserve remaining marinade for basting.

Barbecue steak on grill set 2 inches above hot coals (coals are ready when gray, shot with a ruddy glow), a total of 25 minutes for rare, 30 minutes for medium, turning and basting frequently with marinade.

To make Gado Gado Sauce: in a small saucepan combine peanut butter with hot water; add all other sauce ingredients. Simmer 5 minutes.

To serve: place steak on carving board. Using a sharp knife, carve steak in thin, diagonal slices across the grain, holding knife at 30° angle. Pour Gado Gado Sauce over slices.

FACTS FOR VOTERS ISSUED BY LEAGUE

A new edition of 'Facts for Voters" has just been issued by the League of Women Voters of West San Bernardino County. At a recent meeting of the Board of the League held in the Chino home of the president, Mrs. Ned Carter, plans were made for distribution of the directory of officials serving the West End in all governmental levels.

The publication lists names, terms of office and addresses of representatives from this area to the U.S. Congress, the California Legislature, and the County Board of Supervisors. Information is included concerning City Councils and administrative officers of the cities of Ontario, Upland, Chino and Montclair, and for school districts within this area.

Another section summarizes general voting information pertaining to qualifications, voter registration and absentee balloting.

Copies of "Facts for Voters" are available without charge at the public libraries in the four cities.

La Traviata Rehearsals

Rehearsals for the full scale production of LA TRAVIATA will begin September 16.

They will be held at 7:15 p.m. in the Berlyn School at 1320 North Berlyn Avenue, Ontario.

The performances are scheduled for the evenings of November 14 and 15.

It is not necessary to audition - the only requisite being the love of singing and the desire to perform.

Those wishing to sing in the chorus and perform in the opera are urged to call Stefan Petroff 714-987-2730 as soon as possible.

The West End Opera Association's plans for the 1969-70 season also include IL TROVATORE, which will be presented in April, 1970.

Realtors Convention To Draw West End Delegates

General session of the California Real Estate Association's annual convention in Los Angeles September 27-October 2 will be held at Los Angeles' internationally known Music Center, it was disclosed by Milton Stone, president of the Ontario-Upland Board of Realtors.

The opening session on Tuesday September 30, will be in the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, the Wednesday session in the Ahmanson Theater. This is the first convention, Stone said, to hold sessions at the Center.

Convention headquarters will be in the Biltmore Hotel, where the balance of the meetings will be held.

He said many local Realtors, real estate salesmen, their wives and guests will attend.

"Three outstanding speakers, the first confirmed of many who will appear, have been announced," he added. James C. Downs, Jr., chairman of the Real Estate Research Corporation, Chicago, will give an authoritative forecast Thursday, October 2, on national economics as they effect real estate. Downs has been a nationally recognized authority on such trends for years.

Heartstill Wilson, of Denver, Colorado, a leading consultant on salesman ship and a popular speaker at national sales meetings, will address the Tuesday, September 30, session on "The Profile of the Professional."

On Wednesday, October 1, the president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, John Cotton of San Diego, will discuss the role of Realtors in improving urban life in our country.

Stone said Emmett T. Gatewood, Jr., of Los Gatos, president of the 46,000-member CREA, has predicted 4,000 to 5,000 total attendance at the seven-day convention. Gatewood and Walter N. Marks of Los Angeles, chairman of the CREA Convention Committee and who was instrumental in arranging for use of the music Center, expect the attraction being such beautiful and famous buildings to swell the total, Stone commented.

He said some 15 conferences on real estate subjects, an extensive schedule of early morning workshop sessions, luncheon and general sessions speakers, will try to answer questions such as:

Where will mortage money come from next year and five years from now? Is a computer revolution under way in real estate brokerages? Are single family homes being phased out in favor of apartments?

"These will be how-it-is and how-it-will-be sessions on real estate, he stated.
he stated. "Among the conferences will be ones on truth-in-lending, financing, property management, land development, exchanging computers in real estate, syndication and industrial and commercial property".

He said on Saturday, September 27, there will be a full day conference co-sponsored by CREA and State Department of Real Estate, reviewing real estate educational programs being offered by the universities, colleges and junior colleges in California.

Special luncheon events, tours, meetings of the association's 39 statewide committes, and entertainment are planned.

Among entertainment events already set is a President's Dinner Dance Wednesday night, October 1, in the Biltmore Hotel. Gisele Mackenzie, television, theater and nightclub star, will headline the floor show. With her will be Lou Mosconi, Jr., nightclub comedian, Skiles and Henderson, comedy team noted for recreating sounds from bird calls to auto races, and Jimmy Talbert and his orchestra.

Other speakers and events will be announced as confirmed, Stone said.

The Scorpion

Scorpions once claimed as mony as seven lives a year in Arizona before antivenins, public education, and improved extermination reduced the threat.

Early cotton growers threw the valuable cottonseed away after the cotton was ginned.

Quimby Named To Serve On Privacy Right Comm.

SACRAMENTO- Assemblyman John Quimby (D-Rialto) was recently appointed to a special legislative committee by Assembly Speaker Robert T. Monagan (R-Tracy) to probe into problems involving the protection of an individual's right to privacy in view of the growing use of computer information banks in both industry and government.

The creation of the Assembly Committee on Statewide Information Policy was authorized earlier this year by the Legislature in House Resolution 64.

Quimby said he was pleased to accept the appointment and intends to work toward a program to effect proper controls over the use of information which is stored in the data banks.

"In this era of computerization," the lawmaker said, "an individual's complete history from the time he was born can be recorded on computer tape.

While such information may be necessary for use by governmental and private agencies, the flip of a switch could turn information on an individual's personal life into the hands of irresponsible groups to be used for their own personal gain."

The committee will be directed to explore the methods of processing, collecting, storing and disseminating information in both public and private agencies through the use of computer data banks.

Adults Are Afraid Of Feelings

by Dana Downie

"I can't draw worth a darn, so I had to try sculpturing and photography to try and express myself without drawing," admitted a smiling Jeff Cole, Upland high art teacher and photo-enthusiast.

"Teaching and art are related," he states. "There is some cross over. If you can understand what I do in art, you can understand what I am trying to do in teaching."

"My art should say what I'm not able to say in words, a sort of non - verbal communication. People see different things in my work. But they should get something out of it," he added, "or else why show it?"

Kids Communicate

"In my art classes, I hope I am giving them a sense of communication. I try to get the kids to express their feelings. We have become too bloody rational and preplanned. We plan our way around our feelings, for we would rather think--than feel. We've become unfeeling computers.

"Adults are afraid of feeling. Kids are honest in a way adults can't be. They say what they think and feel.

"Four years ago I was studying for old age. I was getting stogy. I was afraid to experience and feel. David (his two year old) has given me a new perspective on life as have the kids at school."

Button Pushers

"I worry about my students," stated the 30 year old art instructor. "I wonder if they are getting something worthwhile from their education. We are not preparing them to be anything--not even a human being. We are producing educated button-pushers. We teach English, but not communication."

He also adds, "We are teaching our kids the wrong values. It's backwards to love things and use people. We should use things and love people. That's what it's all about."

An example is found in his classes, where a student will ask if he likes what they have made. "What they are really asking me, is if I will give them a good grade."

Values can also be seen in his recreation class at Montclair, where "some kids couldn't operate without being told what to do." He said some of the students did not claim their work.

"To me, that means a waste. They thought so little of their work that they wouldn't come back for it. That means they wasted their time in here instead of doing something they would have liked doing. It also means that I am wasting my time."

To Be a Teacher

The moustached artist-photographer has wanted to be a teacher since he was 15. However, it might not have been apparent following his graduation from college. He went to Europe to travel and study photography with Paul Strand.

"I got started in photography at a time in my life when I needed order. In art there are so many variables, but in photo - graphy there is some set limitation in the variables."

"I don't know how to describe my photography," he chuckled. I try to get a total range of white, black and grey values in my pictures. I always use a tripod with my Mamiya. I use as much of the square negatives as I can." Through close-up photography, he shows the texture of his subjects.

He is also interested in forming one composition from two pictures, called a montage. "When you are planning to use multiple negatives, it requires you to pre-visualize the finished print," he said.

While he was in Europe, he went to a party in Prague, where he met his future wife, Zendenka. He returned to the U.S. and was a "computer baby-sitter" while he was showing his photo work. Through his mother-in-law's connections with the Ministry of Culture in Czechoslovakia, his work was shown in numerous shows in that country, including the lobbies of theaters.

The Great "if"

There is a great "if" surrounding some of his photo - work. It was to be shown in the biggest gallery display in Czechoslovakia, the Artists Union Hall. Reproductions of all the works shown in the gallery were to be published in a book, with about $2000 in royalties. The show was to have been in September.

The Russians invaded Czechoslovakia on August 22.

All of Jeff's friends fled. or are silent. His relatives escaped to Canada. He does not know what has happened to his two portfolios of work, the book, or even if the show was held.

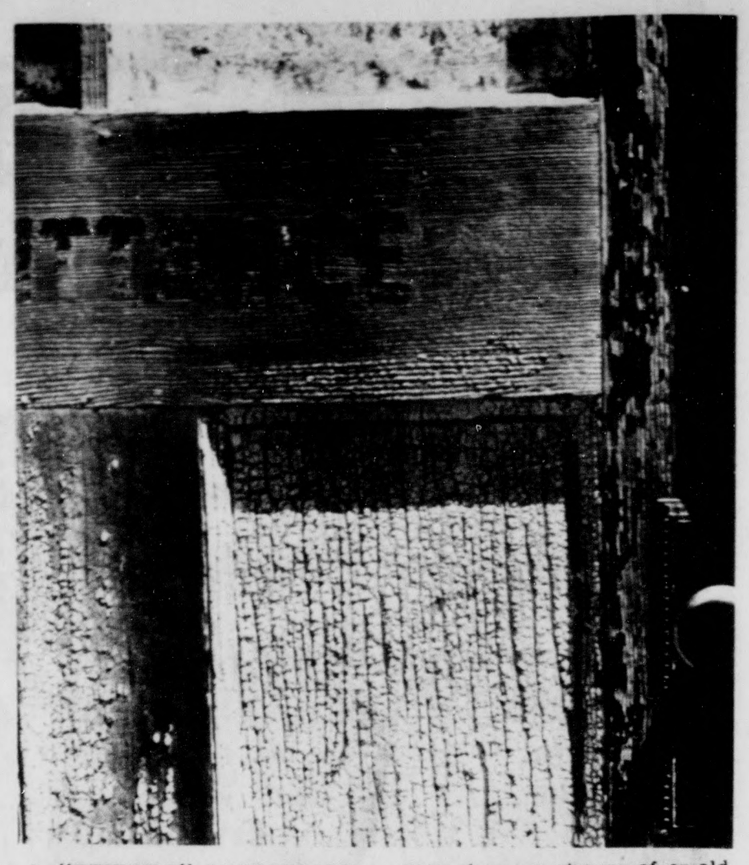
"I have no plans to go to Czechoslovakia until the Russians are out," he firmly states.

His work has been shown in Czechoslovakia and England and throughout the United States including the Golden Oakes festival of arts in 1966, Best of Show at the Hollywood Bowl in 1967, Tuscon south-west art festival and the LA county fair.

Jeff Cole does not want to exist as a computer with no feelings.

He wants to express his feelings and emotions.

Through the non-verbal communication of the camera and clay, he is able to attempt to express what he cannot express in words.



A "TEXTURE" PHOTOGRAPH -- This close-up picture of an old, weathered door illustrates Jeff Cole's experiments in texture photography. He also creates one picture from two negatives, in a montage process. He says that his art should be a "non-verbal communication."

Ralph Lewis Speaks Tonight To CREA Group

Ralph M. Lewis, Pomona Valley builder and developer, will speak on "Tract Development in Today's Tight Money Market" before members of the California Real Estate Association's Appraisal Division on Thursday, September 4, it was announced by Jesse B. Chapman of Alhambra, division chairman.

His talk will be the feature of the group's monthly dinner meeting at 6 p.m. at the Engineer's Club, Room 3333, Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles.

Lewis is a CPA and member of the State Bar. A graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles with a B.S. in Accounting, he has taught courses in accounting, taxation, and housing finance at UCLA, University of Southern California, and Los Angeles City College.

He is a trustee of Citrus College, Azusa, and has served on advisory committees at UCLA, Cal-Poly, and Mt. San Antonio College.

During the past 14 years he has built more homes than any other builder and developer in the Pomona Valley.

Those interested in attending may make reservations through the California Real Estate Association, 520 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles, California 90017, telephone 628-0551.

Surtax Added To Phone Bill

A 1.61 per cent surtax was added to the bills of General Telephone Company subscribers effective, after Aug. 16, 1969, a phone company spokesman has announced.

The additional tax, approved earlier this year by the California Public Utilities Commission, will remain in effect "until such time as the 10 per cent federal surtax is lifted."

If the federal surtax is reduced, the tax surcharge could be reduced or eliminated, Seitzinger said.

A notice explaining the new tax was to be included in bills sent out this month, he added. The notice points out that the charge "relates to the 10 per cent federal income tax surcharge and will be separately stated on your bill."

Inland Bank Dates Free Kids' Movies

POMONA--Inland Bank will pay off a debt unusual for a bank in September by leasing a downtown theater in Pomona and putting on free shows for children.

The bank recently celebrated its 5th anniversary by inviting all 5-year-olds born in its birthday month to pay it a visit and claim free gifts. The gifts ranged from $25 bonds for those born on the day the bank opened to Dr. Seuss story books for all others.

The party proved so successful that 1,500 copies of Dr. Seuss' new classic, "Happy Birthday to You," were given away.

"The kids brought so much cheer to us adults that we felt we owed them something," said Wilson H. Asdel, Inland's president.

The free movies will be shown at the Fox Theater, 3rd and Garey, Pomona, Sept. 3, 4 and 5.

Tickets will be given away free at Inland Bank offices at Pomona, Claremont and Ontario. All children are eligible.

Inland Bank Notes Healthy Construction Trend In Area

POMONA -- A healthy trend in 1969 Pomona valley residential construction was reported by the Inland bank in its quarterly economic review.

The bank also forecast continued activity in home building for the balance of the year in the face of rising costs, high interest rates and shortage of loan funds.

Commercial and industrial building, said the bank, is faring equally well, and total value of construction in the region by year end should reach $99 million, a 58.2 per cent increase over 1968.

The review was prepared by Claremont economist Gerhard N. Rostvold and made public by the bank's president, Wilson H. Asdel.

"At the current rate of residential construction" the Inland Review said, "the number of new dwelling units in the Pomona Valley (including Ontario and Upland) will increase 41.1 per cent over the 1969 level to a total of 1,470 (1,240 single family residences and 230 multiple units)."

The bank said that the 58.2 per cent jump of all construction value to $99 million "will be due in large part to construction activity in the Ontario area" of a general, nonresidential nature.

Currently, Upland, Pomona and Claremont are the most active in the single-family residence category while Claremont and Pomona lead in multiple dwellings and Pomona leads in both commercial and industrial building.

"Looking to the future," the Inland Bank review said, "it becomes readily apparent that new commercial, industrial and 'other' (general) construction investment will outpace residential construction in the next several years.

"This trend is consistent with the accelerated pace of economic development currently underway in the Pomona Valley.

"During the next several years, housing construction will follow, not lead, economic growth trends within the area economy."

The reference, bank officials explained, was to the growing industrial and commercial activity in both the Los Angeles and San Bernardino county parts of the valley under the spur of freeway and Ontario International Airport development.

The review also contained a breakdown of 1968 construction figures. It showed that San Dimas, Claremont, Upland and Chino led in single family residences and Montclair, with 31 new homes, experiencing the first appreciable residential construction activity since 1964.

SAN DIMAS UP

San Dimas was the only community to surpass its 1964 level of single family dwelling construction, with 148 new additions in 1968.

Value of residential permits in incorporated cities of the valley rose to $21.4 million in 1968 from $12.6 million in 1967 a rise of 70 per cent. The number of single family units rose 74.4 per cent to 860 from 493.

Of the 860 units, Chino added the largest number, 180 new homes. Claremont added 158 (18.4 per cent of the total); San Dimas 148 (17.2 per cent) and Upland 147 (17.1 per cent). San Dimas led in value of single family units with $4.1 million, Claremont was second with $4.0 million, Upland next with $3.8 million and Chino fourth with $3.6 million.

Gebel Musa, in southern Sinai, is the traditional Mount Sinai where Moses received the Ten Commandments. Scholars, however, have expressed doubt as to which of several mountains actually was the Biblical site.

United Crusade Shoots For Moon In Campaign

The first stage of this year's United Crusade campaign in Pomona Valley blasted off recently with a "Pilot" kickoff program headed by chairman Bill McNee, of General Telephone Co., Pomona.

Theme of this year's campaign is "Voyage to the Moon."

The "Pilot" department is staffed by the three utility departments including General Telephone, Southern Counties Gas Co., and Edison Co.

The Pomona Valley area goal is $474,170.

Although the "Pilot" Department is expected to collect 40 per cent of the goal before October, actual "blastoff" dates for residential, commercial businesses, professional and advanced gifts departments won't be until Oct. 9.

The site of the kickoff is Pitzer College on Oct. 9, with a victory date set for Nov. 18.

The Los Angeles County goal this year is $30 million dollars compared to $28 million last year, Wil Wyatt, United Crusade Campaign Chairman for the Pomona Valley, said.

"The amount of money raised in these drives enables United Crusade agencies to provide services to one out of three individuals in Los Angeles County," Wyatt said.

Wyatt said the efficiency of one campaign results in a large savings to the average citizen.

"The average cost of year-round administration of these agencies is about six cents out of every dollar collected compared to an average 30 cents out of each dollar it would cost to run independent campaigns, for each separate agency," Wyatt said.

He said one United Crusade Drive a year results in approximately $5 million savings to the community.

Gas Co. Home Service Seminar Updates Appliances Of Future

Forecasting appliances of the future and discussing what is available on the market today were the subjects treated by Margaret Easley, director of Home Economics for Tappan, at a recent gas company Home Service Seminar.

Laurie Lewis, representing the gas company's Eastern Division, was among 25 home economists attending the seminar.

A two-day event held annually at the utility's general offices in Monterey Park, the seminar is designed to bring the women up-to-date on marketing and advertising information which will be used in future programs for homemakers, students and various women's groups.

Miss Easley's presentation included introduction of Tappan's new Mira-cool self-cleaning gas oven and a prototype of a smooth top range expected to be marketed by year-end or early next year.

Other subjects covered the effective use of visual aids, redirections in the dietetics-food industry program and the latest developments in gas air conditioning.

Looking ahead to the holidays, a special program 'The Making of a Holiday' was presented to give the women ideas on easy-to-make decorations and festive fare. These ideas will be incorporated in special programs prepared by the home economists for the public.

SCE Granted $35 Million Rate Increase Plus Tax

LOS ANGELES - The California Public Utilities Commission has granted Southern California Edison a $35,139,000 annual rate increase, plus an additional, temporary $11,529,000 as long as the federal 10% surtax remains in effect. The temporary $11,529,000 will be collected as a 2% surcharge on customers' bills.

Edison was asking a $60 million annual increase and a 7.6% rate of return on its investment.

The Commission said the increase authorized should allow Edison a 7.35% return on investment which is subject to PUC jurisdiction.

During public hearings on the company's application, Edison had argued that no rate relief was available from non-PUC jurisdictional customers and that if the Commission concerned itself only with a reasonable rate of return on PUC jurisdictional rates, the relief granted would fall far short of meeting Edison's overall financial requirements.

The Commission concluded, however, that it should authorize rates only on a California jurisdictional basis.

The Commission rejected Long Beach's proposal to eliminate any increases for street lighting.

Long Beach had maintained that any increase in the cost of street lighting would ultimately be borne by the ratepayer in the lighted area and that it would be more efficient to spread any justified increase over other classes of service.

The Commission said, however, "there is nothing . . . to show that the ratepayer in the lighted area is the same as the taxpayer or that their respective burdens would be the same if justified increases in the street lighting rates were spread over the other classes of service."

Increases sought by Edison and those allowed by the Commission by class of service are:

Percentages are in order Edison, Commission.

Domestic 14.1%, 10.8%; Agriculture 10.2%, 9.6%; Commercial 11.0%, 7.8%; St. Lighting 14.7%, 13.6%; Industrial 4.2%, 3.5%.

The rate increases become effective four days after Edison files its new tariffs with the Commission.

In the Reichestag election of 1928, at least 25 per cent of eligible German voters failed to cast their ballot.

Sen. Deukmejian Speaks Sept. 12 At Claremont

State Senator George Deukmejian, senate majority leader, and Republican candidate for State Attorney General, will be the featured speaker at the Quarterly meeting of the Claremont Republican Club, on Friday, September 12, at the Arbor Restaurant in Upland. Dr. Joseph V. Schetgen of Claremont, vice president of the Claremont Club said that there will be a cocktail hour from 6:30 to 7:30 with dinner following.

Deukmejian, (pronounced Duke - MAY-jin) the only announced candidate for Attorney General represents the 37th Senatorial District in Los Angeles County. A lawyer, and a former two term Assemblyman from the Long Beach area, Deukmejian was elected to the senate in 1966, and in 1968 was re-elected by 92% of the vote, running virtually unopposed. This year, he was appointed Majority Floor Leader in the senate after Republicans became the majority party.

Deukmejian announced his candidacy for the Attorney seat on May 15, declaring that the first duty of the state was "to provide protection and safety for the people." Since declaring he has lashed out at the incumbent Attorney General "for his inaction if office," and has promised "vigorous action on behalf of the citizens of California."

Sears Opens West Covina Store, Tuesday, Sept. 2

Sears, Roebuck and Co. opened its West Covina Plaza store Tuesday, September 2, at 9:30 a.m. following a brief ribbon cutting ceremony.

E. W. Weldon, Sears Los Angeles district manager, also announced that William D. Blaine, department manager at the Sears store in Covina, will manage the new unit located at 1144 Garvey avenue in the West Covina Plaza Center.

The building interior has been extensively remodeled to accommodate modern display fixtures which will show the latest of Sears appliances to customers in this valley area.

A modern catalog ordering facility is being installed to give shoppers the finest of facilities for placing catalog orders.

The 5,300 sq. ft. facility will have over 3,000 sq. ft. devoted to merchandise displays.

J. R. McKenna, store manager at Covina, said, "I am pleased to be able to promote Blaine to this new position of responsibility in accordance with Sears policy of promotion from within the Company."

Blaine, a native of Iselin, Penna., has been employed by Sears since 1964. He started as a salesman in the floor covering department at the Pomona store.

In 1966 Blaine was promoted to department manager of floor coverings at the Long Beach unit.

He joined the Covina store as manager of the floor coverings and custom decorations prior to opening in the summer of 1968.

Blaine and his wife, Mary, live in Glendora and have four children: Connie, 13; David,11; Kevin, 9; and Thomas, 6. He is a sportsman and particularly likes golf and baseball.

If you want it - You can bet - We have it - If you have it - Don't want it - We can sell it.

Local CLASSIFIED

Selling is more than a sale- it's a service! That's the motto of Marge Carter, director of the special Classified Ads for this newspaper.

Why does our blonde and bubbly Miss Carter say selling is service- because only through the Classified Ads can the "little guy" find a buyer -or what he needs to buy. More than any other section of your wonderful newspaper, Classified Ads bring about a people-to people program-where the PROFIT is in YOUR pocket- and that old adage is switched to " I can get it for you LESS than wholesale."

Miss Carter has learned every trick to make every tiny ad stand out- she combines clever copy with flawless art- and backs it all up with over a decade of experience.

Now really, wouldn't you rather have cash in your pocket, than Aunt Tilly's white elephant in your garage?

Believe it or not, someone, somewhere, reading this page right now, wants Aunt Tilly's elephant.

Marge Carter brings the sellers together with the cash buyers- so put cash in YOUR pocket with an instant ad-just.....

LET MARGE CARTER BARTER FOR YOU. CALL 985-2886 or 626-2467 FOR HER SPECIALIZED ATTENTION

Cal Poly Graduate Director Once Water Shy, Now A Fan

For the first 52 years of his life, Dr. Robert Maurer shunned water.

Today, at 56, the director of graduate studies at California State Polytechnic College, Kellogg - Voorhis, Pomona, is the national leader in the Red Cross Swim and Stay Fit program, swimming 700 miles back and forth across a swimming pool, and picking up 14 50-mile certificates in the process.

"I never swam well, I didn't like to swim--in fact, I bet I swam less than 10 miles my whole life," the slight-built, greying Maurer explained. And despite his 700 miles of experience, he admittedly doesn't swim much better today than in 1964 when he began the Red Cross program.

The previous top national rate was 600 miles, according to Mrs. Fran Tucker, director of safety services for the Pomona Red Cross.

But Maurer sees his accomplishment as more than 14 certificates and thousands of laps in a pool.

"I'm not a self-generating person," he explained, "so this gives me a goal to work toward."

Physically, the program has been beneficial to him. He suffers from arthritis in his knees, and says his doctor heartily approves of the exercise he gets from his daily swims in the Cal Poly pool.

One of the most satisfying aspects of the program, he explains, is that through his example, others have been encouraged to enter the program.

"There are a lot of people my age who would be a lot healthier if they exercised," Maurer says.

Yet Maurer himself had to be subtly pushed into the program.

When two swimming pools were built at Cal Poly in 1964, a group of his fellow faculty members asked him to come along with them for lunchtime swims to encourage the physical education (P.E.) department to set aside the pool for the use of the faculty at that hour. He reluctantly obliged, and began to spend his lunch hours splashing in the pool.

One day he decided to see if he could swim a lap, and considered it "quite an achievement" when he was able to.

Then the head of the P. E. department suggested to him that he join the Red Cross Swim and Stay Fit program to stay in good shape.

Maurer resides with his wife, Evelyn, at 544 Northwestern Dr., Claremont.

WON'T SOMEBODY COME? -- At the ring toss booth during the Aqua Carnival on Friday, Aug. 22, this young girl grimaces in the bright afternoon sunlight as she looks for customers to test their tossing agility. The carnival was sponsored by the San Dimas and La Verne Recreation department.
